Use our address to get the locals' discount: 700 W Gillespie, Aspen, CO 81611. Ask for Desiree if problems registering.

Independent Babysitters

Families often join together to provide childcare for babies and young children for whom daycare is less easily arranged. Sometimes physicists' teenagers are available to babysit or parents take turns or join together to hire an independent sitter. We can often recommend local babysitters whom we know. Email Patty Fox if you need contact information before you arrive.
